Using Fermi estimation I am calculating how many guitarists are there in Chicago.

The population of Chicago is 2.7 million. Around 5% of the population might play the guitar or have some level of proficiency with it.

Number of guitarists = 2.7 million * 0.05 = 135,000 guitarists.

Based on the rough estimates there are approximately 135,000 guitarists in Chicago.